

Inter-Agency Mobility: Call for Applications

Legal Officer – Cybersecurity Certification - Temporary Agent 2(f) – AD5-AD6

Ref. ENISA-TA57-AD-2019-06-IAM

The European Union Agency for Network and Information Security (ENISA) welcomes applications from highly motivated candidates to contribute to the development of the Agency.

Please send us your applications by no later than 15/05/2019 at 16:00 (Greece local time).

Please note that the filling of this position is conditional on the formal approval by the European Parliament and the Council of the EU and the publication in the EU Official Journal of the Cybersecurity Act.

However, as part of this process a reserve list will be formed that will also be used to identify candidates for any positions that may arise from the existing pool of positions.

1. The Agency

The Agency is a centre of expertise for cyber security in Europe.

Since it was set up in 2004¹, ENISA is actively contributing to a high level of network and information security (NIS) within the Union, to the development of a culture of NIS in society and in order to raise awareness of NIS, thus contributing to proper functioning of the internal market.

ENISA focuses on five main areas:

- Collecting and analysing data on security incidents and emerging risks in Europe;
- Assisting and advising the Commission and the Member States in their dialogue with industry to address security related problems and, when called upon, in the technical preparatory work for updating and developing Community legislation in the field of network and information security;
- Promoting best practices, risk assessment and risk management, training and awareness raising actions;
- Encouraging co-operation between different actors, developing and maintaining contact with institutions, the business community and consumer organisations, notably through public/private partnerships;
- Tracking the development of standards for products and services in the field of network and information security and promoting their use.

In addition, proposed in 2017 as part of a wide-ranging set of measures to deal with cyber-attacks and with a view to building strong cybersecurity in the EU, the draft Cybersecurity Act includes:

- A permanent mandate for the EU Cybersecurity Agency, ENISA;
- A stronger basis for ENISA in the EU cybersecurity certification framework to assist Member States in effectively responding to cyber-attacks with a greater role in cooperation and coordination at Union level.

ENISA is located in Athens and in Heraklion, Crete, Greece.

¹ Regulation (EU) No 526/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 May 2013, repealing Regulation (EC) No 460/2004, (OJ L 165/41, 18.06.2013).

The place of employment for the Legal Officer – Cybersecurity Certification position is Athens.

ENISA's staff are expected to be reasonably mobile in order to respond to the needs of the Member States on the basis of planned as well as ad hoc needs.

Further information about ENISA may be found on our website: <https://www.enisa.europa.eu/>

2. Job description

The Jobholder will be responsible for the following tasks:

- Provide input into the design of cybersecurity certification schemes for specific products, services and processes particularly with regard to legal aspects thereof.
- Carry out legal assessments of operational input to the promulgation process of certification schemes.
- Support fostering co-operation across various stakeholders involved in the cybersecurity certification framework, developing and maintaining contact with relevant private, and public sector organisations and the EU institutions.
- Support the legal and procedural aspects of the design and implementation of an internal governance system including internal processes, procedures, systems (including information systems) and training to support the cybersecurity certification framework activities of the Agency. Support analyses on the internal market impact of the cybersecurity certification framework.
- Contribute to the support function of the Agency towards Member States and the European Commission within the European Cybersecurity Certification Group as well as the Industry Advisory Group.
- Support the administering of the intellectual property rights (IPR) policy of the Agency, particularly in the area of cybersecurity certification and assist in developing the IPR framework further.
- Support the Agency in handling complaints in operational areas including cybersecurity certification.
- Assist the line management in ensuring that the approach to certification and the associated deliverables are aligned with the legal basis on cybersecurity certification.
- Contribute to the execution of the Union rolling plan on cybersecurity certification.
- Co-ordinate tenders and supervise contracts related to the cybersecurity certification activity supported by associated public procurement functions of the Agency.
- Assist and advise the Agency in its dialogue with private, and public sector organisations and the EU institutions and other stakeholders as appropriate to address cybersecurity certification related challenges and, when called upon, in the framework of technical preparatory work to update and support proposals regarding European legislation in cybersecurity.
- Take on additional responsibilities as required in the interest of the service.

3. Qualifications and experience required

² Only diplomas issued by EU Member State authorities and diplomas recognised as equivalent by the relevant EU Member State bodies are accepted. If the main studies took place outside the European Union, the candidate's qualification must have been recognised by a body delegated officially for the purpose by one of the European Union Member States (such as a national Ministry of Education) and a document attesting so must be submitted if you have been invited for an interview. This will enable the selection board to assess accurately the level of the qualifications.

³ Professional experience connected with the Agency's areas of activities shall be taken into account and is counted only from the time the candidate obtained the certificate or diploma required for admission to the selection procedure.

⁴ Recruited candidates shall be required to demonstrate before their first promotion the ability to work in a third European Community language.

⁵ Prior to the appointment, the successful candidate will be asked to provide a certificate issued by a competent Member State Authority attesting the absence of any criminal record.

⁶ Before appointment, the successful candidate shall be medically examined in line with the requirement of Article 28(e) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities.

Low Scoring Criteria (2 points per criterion)

- Experience in working with EU legislation and policy in a legal capacity.
- Good knowledge of the current regulatory and policy initiatives of the EU and/or EU Member States in the areas mentioned above.
- Experience in project management proven by a suitable record of accomplishment and/or suitable evidence.
- Qualification to practice Law in a Member State jurisdiction.

IMPORTANT:

All high scoring and low scoring criteria are evaluated in order to identify the candidates to be invited for an interview. The top candidates (number of the shortlisted candidates scoring above the threshold to be set by the selection board) will be invited for an interview and written test. Therefore, candidates are recommended to give evidence of their knowledge by specific examples and/or detailed professional experience in the application form in order to be evaluated in the best possible way. To that purpose candidates are requested to be as detailed and as clear as possible in the description of their professional experience and specific skills and competences.

4. Selection procedure

The selected candidate will be appointed to a position according to the needs of the Agency, on the basis of the reserve list of candidates, proposed by the Selection Board and established following an open selection process involving interviews and written tests.

More specifically, the Selection Board decides on those candidates who are admitted to the selection procedure in accordance with the requirements as specified in the vacancy notice. The applications of the candidates admitted to the selection procedure are reviewed and the Selection Board decides on those candidates who are invited to attend an interview and written test. The Selection Board adheres strictly to the conditions of admission laid down in the vacancy notice when deciding whether or not candidates are to be admitted. Candidates admitted to a previous selection procedure will not automatically be eligible. Should the Selection Board discover at any stage in the procedure that the candidate does not meet one or more of the general or special conditions for admission to the selection procedure or that the information on the application form does not correspond with the supporting documents, the candidate will be disqualified.

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to undergo a written test of which the candidates will be informed in advance. In addition, all shortlisted candidates might be requested to complete an online personality test. Shortlisted candidates will be required to submit electronically relevant supporting documentation demonstrating their educational qualifications and work experience. It is envisaged that the interviews and written test will take place in June 2019. Shortlisted candidates may also be required to provide work-related references upon request of the Agency. The activity of the Selection Board ends with the drawing of a reserve list of suitable applicants to occupy the position advertised. Candidates should note that inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment.

The reserve list will be valid until 31/12/2020 and may be extended by decision of the Executive Director for a further 12 months. This list may be used to recruit Staff for other positions in the areas referred to in this vacancy.

Candidates invited to an interview will be informed by e-mail whether or not he/she has been placed on the reserve list. Candidates on the reserve list will be asked to fill a specific form informing the Appointing Authority of any actual or potential conflict of interest⁷. If a letter of intention is issued, the candidate must undergo a compulsory medical examination to establish that he/she meets the standard of physical fitness necessary to perform the duties involved and the candidate must provide original or certified copies of all relevant documents.

In line with the European Ombudsman's recommendation, ENISA publishes the names of the Selection Board on its website once established. It is strictly forbidden for the candidates to make any contact with the Selection Board, either directly or indirectly. Any infringement to this rule will disqualify the candidate from the competition.

All enquiries or requests for information in relation to the competition, including details about candidates' results⁸ should be addressed to the following email address recruitment@enisa.europa.eu

5. Conditions of Employment

ENISA and the selected Temporary Agent shall conclude a contract of employment which ensures continuation of his/her employment and career in the category of TA 2(f). That contract shall be concluded without interruption of the contract concluded with the Agency of origin ("the preceding contract") and shall fulfil the following requirements, in particular:

- The same grade and the same seniority in the grade as the preceding contract.
- The same step and the same seniority in step as the preceding contract.

The end date of the contract concluded with ENISA and of the preceding contract shall be the same. In the event that the preceding contract comes to its natural end on the day of the move, the duration of the contract concluded shall be the same as that ENISA would have set in case of a renewal of one of its own TA 2(f).

The selected Temporary Agent shall take up duty at ENISA up to three months' after the job offer, unless it is otherwise agreed between the two Agencies and the Staff Member concerned.

The Agency of origin shall transfer the personnel file to ENISA no later than 30 days after the date of the move.

The rights and entitlements inherent to the country of employment (i.e. Greece) will be adapted accordingly.

6. Data protection

All personal data shall be processed in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39–98) on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the
